LOCAL BREVITIES.

Buck beer now.

Now for the May flowers.

Pie-plant is in the market.

The home grown berry in about three weeks.

Daugherty's Summer School opened Monday.

School is out and the Ironton boy is in his glory.

New millinery goods at Mrs. Woodside's this week.

J. R. Baldwin has put water-works in his residence.

WANTED—A young Jersey milch cow. Apply at this office.

The revival meeting is still in progress at the Baptist church.

It is said there will be plenty of all kinds of fruit except peaches.

The Emerson park and residence at $7,000 is a cheap piece of property.

The school board meets May 12th to elect teachers for the ensuing year.

Services will be held at St. Paul's church Sunday at the usual hours.

Fire on Shepherd Mountain came near destroying some fencing Sunday.

As the grass gets green the cow and her bell every day get more in evidence.

For the month of May we will make six minette photographs for 10 cents. Perkins.

Miss Alice Twomey is conducting a private school for the little ones in the school building.

Work on the new Lopez store will begin at once. It is hoped to occupy the structure by early fall.

M. Joseph's auction has attracted quite a crowd this week and the St. Louis auctioneer makes fun for all.

The strawberries imported last week were very good—much better than they usually are so early in the season.

There are no definite plans for improving the burnt district. There are some rumors but nothing authentic.

Some troops are expected at the range from the Barracks about the first of May. Nothing but colored troops again this year, it is said.

Now once more there is talk of a "boom" at Pilot Knob. Well, we'd like to see it. We've been promised often and waited long.

Miss Olive Begley, who is attending the college at Arcadia, returned home yesterday to spend Easter with her parents.—Poplar Bluff Citizen.

At the meeting of the school board last Saturday evening, Mrs. Nannie Walker was employed to take the enumeration of the district this year.

Misses Lillia Barings and Alta Bissell returned yesterday to the convent at Arcadia, after a short visit with their parents in this city.—Poplar Bluff Citizen.

The Russell farm in Bellevue was not sold for taxes, as advertised, Tuesday. The taxes and costs were paid and the proceedings stopped before the sale.

MARRIED—At Ironton, Mo., Monday, April 23, 1906, by W. G. Fairchild, J. P., Lawrence Sweeney, of Iron county, and Mamie Hall, of St. Francois county.

Just a tremor of the earthquake that ruined San Francisco last Wednesday morning was noticeable in the Valley. Geo. L. Smith says he distinctly noticed a shock about seven o'clock in the morning.

It has never been our good fortune to know a more clever, accommodating and courteous man about a depot than our own agent, Mr. Chas. E. Downey. He is always pleasant and always ready to wait on you.

Dr. W. J. Smith bought the Emerson home at Sheriff's sale Tuesday for $7,000. The Dr. says he bought the property as a speculation and does not expect to keep it.

Next Tuesday is the last day for entering the primary race. All who want their names on the ticket must settle with the treasurer of the county committee before that time.

In a letter from Crockett, Texas, Rev. Manly tells us that they are enjoying an early spring down there. All kinds of vegetables and frying size chickens in profusion.

C. D. Alexander, who has been working extra on the pushers for the past year or more, has severed his connection with the railroad, and will in future devote all his time to the farm.

Clarence Whitworth writes us that he is no longer in St. Louis, but is now in the store with his brother in Fredericktown. We are glad to know that he is getting along very nicely.

The job of moving the old store building of the Lopez Store Company was most satisfactorily accomplished. Everything worked as smooth as oil and no inconvenience was suffered at all.

All candidates who desire to have their names placed on the primary election ticket in Iron county are hereby notified to pay their assessment to W. T. O'Neal, treasurer, on or before May 1st.

The little folk in Miss Fairchild's and Miss Gay's rooms in the public school gave very creditable entertainments last Thursday and Friday afternoons. Quite a number of visitors were in attendance.

Mrs. Woodside is in St. Louis this week buying a lot more of spring and summer millinery. The Easter demand was far in excess of anticipation, and she finds it necessary to lay in another stock.

The attention of stockmen is directed to the advertisement of Fletcher Bros. on the last page of this paper. The owners of this horse say that he is one of the best bred animals in this section of the country, as an investigation of his pedigree will show.

The right-of-way for the extension of the Sligo & Eastern Railway, from Dilard, in Crawford county, to Goodwater, in Iron county, a distance of about fifteen miles, has been closed and the work of grading will shortly begin.—Steelville Mirror.

Thomas C. Leech, who was a newspaper man in Ironton over twenty years ago, died in St. Louis last Thursday. The remains were taken to Cape Girardeau for interment. Mr. Leech was engaged on one of the trade papers in St. Louis at the time of his death.

The date of the excursions from St. Louis to the Valley this summer will be May 13th, June 17th, August 5th and October 7th. Fare for the round trip, $1.25. Train leaves Union Station at 8:05 A. M., arriving at Arcadia at 11:50 A. M. Returning leaves Arcadia at 6:25 P. M.

M. Joseph says that when he closes out his stock of goods he may go to Arkansas for a while. But he does not think he will leave Ironton for any length of time. He has been here about seven years, he says, and doesn't know that he will find a place that will suit him better.

A number of our subscribers at different post-offices throughout the county—more particularly north of here—complain that they do not receive their paper promptly. The fault is not ours, for we mail regularly every Wednesday. The fault is in the mail service somewhere.

The commencement exercises of the colored school, at the Academy of Music, Monday night, attracted quite a large audience. The graduates were Florence Arnett and Ollie Brown. The exercises were well rendered and gave good evidence of the merits of their instructor, Prof. Gordon.

So far as we have been able to ascertain, none of the Ironton people now in California were molested by the terrible earthquake that devastated San Francisco last Wednesday. Most of the Ironton people are in the neighborhood of Los Angeles, which is almost five hundred miles distant from Frisco.

Judge Williams convened circuit court Monday afternoon. The case against the Brookses for murder was continued until Thursday, when it will go to trial. The cases against Sutton and Brown for burglary were continued until Tuesday of next week. The case against R. Calvert for carrying concealed weapons was dismissed.

To Jos. N. McFarland, a former Missourian, now agent for the Cotton Belt railroad at Mount Pleasant, Texas, we are indebted for a very handsome card case issued by the passenger department of his road, and hidden away in the case was a check for a year's subscription to the REGISTER. Mr. McFarland has our thanks.

Mrs. Woodside will be in St. Louis Wednesday and Thursday of this week replenishing her stock of spring and summer millinery. The Easter trade was so large that it was necessary to buy more goods. The ladies that call now will find an entirely new stock to select from. If they will call, Mrs. Woodside is certain that she can please them.

Friend Wm. Rieke last week received a letter from Ed. Cain, formerly of the screen factory, now located at Consul, Alabama, in the lumber business. Ed. says they have good prospects there.

and are getting along very nicely, but they can't help sighing for the good old days in Missouri, and often wonder when we'll all be together once again.

Fritz Zimmer, one of Doe Run Company employees at Doe Run, met a shocking death near the Doe Run depot at 1:40 Monday morning. He had spent the evening at Hulse's saloon, leaving there about 11:30, and was walking home on the track when he was run down by engine No. 15. The body was terribly mutilated. Both legs and one arm was cut off and the head was found about fifteen feet from the body. He was a member of Doe Run local union, W. P. of M., who conducted the funeral. Deceased leaves a wife and two children, who have the sympathy of the entire community in the untimely death of the husband and father.—Elms Herald.

The A. O. U. W. ball at Bismarck a week ago last Monday evening was well attended. The deplorable accident that morning, resulting in the death of Engineer Bryan, deterred many of the citizens from being present; and, indeed, if it had not been that a number from a distance had come to attend, the dance would have been "called off." Under more auspicious conditions there would probably have been a very large attendance. As it was, the managers succeeded in their endeavor to give their patrons a pleasant time, as indeed is always the case where our Bismarck neighbors are concerned. The party broke up about 3 A. M., but some of us sat the night out, awaiting the homeward bound train. I regret that the station accommodations for waiting passengers are not beyond criticism. It was pretty frosty that morning, and in the waiting room (labeled "for women," too) the stove stood cheerless and dead as if it hadn't known a punk of fire since Christmas. In pleasing contrast was the comfortable hotel office, and many of us were compelled to "sponge" upon the good nature of its genial proprietor. To him many thanks.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Bond was in St. Louis this week.

Dr. Eaton of Bismarck was here Saturday.

Harry Patton is home from Cairo, Ill.

Griffin Excursions Season of 1906.

List showing dates and destinations of Sunday excursions to be run on the Missouri Pacific Railway and Iron Mountain route from St. Louis, during 1906, can be procured from your station Agent on application.

Des Are Items.

Rev. Alcorn preached the funeral of Dr. David Clarkson here Sunday. Quite a large crowd was present. One by one we Virginians are passing away. There was a colony of us, about thirty in number, came out here thirty-nine years ago, and there are only a few left. I have written the obituary of every one that died, and soon some one will have to write mine. All of us were Confederate soldiers and fought for the lost cause under Jackson and Lee. It is a sad, sad scene to see one of us laid in the cold, cold ground, but soon we will all answer the last roll call. Dr. Clarkson lost his right arm in battle and wore an empty sleeve.

He sleeps his last sleep. He has fought his last battle. No sound can awake him to glory again.

THOS. P. FITZ.

Co. I, 5th Va. Cav., C. S. A.

The Holiness people went out on Leatherwood creek, some fourteen miles north of Des Are, and held services.

Our Seventh Day preacher was here last week, but did not preach as he was on the sick list. We have all kinds of religious people with us now.

Mrs. Jas. Lovelace, Jr., and baby have returned to their home in Piedmont.

Mrs. Anna Miller left Saturday for her home in Cape Girardeau, after a visit with relatives and friends here.

Miss Maude Fitz spent Sunday with her sister in Piedmont.

J. D. Hickman went to Ironton Saturday on business.

Miss Nellie Williams returned from a visit to Piedmont Saturday.

Misses Susie Street and Ethel Lovelace left Sunday for Hoxie, Arkansas.

Mrs. W. McKee and daughter, Hazel, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Miller and baby, made a short visit at Mrs. J. S. O'Neal's of Mill Spring last week.

Ed. Benson of Annapolis was in our town on business several days last week.

Jules Freeman, the telephone man of Piedmont, was in Des Are one day last week.

Goodland Items.

All nature is lovely in its attire of spring. Birds are singing, flowers are blooming, the grass is growing, the buds and blossoms are making the air fragrant with vernal sweetness. And "only man is vile."

We were shocked to read of the terrible disaster to one of our chief cities—the beautiful Golden Gate of the Pacific coast. And may we not look for more terrible judgments upon us, who take the law in our own hands, and practice cruelty which is revolting to refined senses? Mob law is never just nor humane and will surely call down the vengeance of high heaven upon the perpetrators thereof.

Rev. S. W. Crocker and family spent last Sunday with Grandma Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Brummet and Miss Lucy were guests of N. W. Adams' family on Saturday.

J. Midgast of Oates visited relatives at Goodland Saturday and Sunday.

Oll. Mayfield and Geo. McMullen are working in the prospector's diggings at the head of Middlefork.

W. H. Smith is doing carpenter work for J. N. Short on Clayton Run.

Cliff Adams is plowing for F. M. Adams.

N. W. Adams is proud of a fine mule colt which he possesses.

Theo. Brooks is farming for Love Carty near Ironton this summer.

Jesse Brooks is plowing for Alf. Rayfield.

Fred Akers is working for Jim Webb.

W. B. Adams, who left San Francisco a few weeks ago for a visit to his aged father, will leave this coming week for New York, where he will spend a short time before returning to California.

Dr. Adams is suffering terribly with a swollen knee, caused by rheumatism.

Miss Ina Johnson of Lesterville spent a week with her grandfather, Dr. Adams.

F. M. Adams has his corn planted and says he owns the prize colt of the season.

Miss Flora Eaton leaves this week for St. Louis, where she is going to learn dressmaking.

Word is received from B. Z. Eaton in Alaska that gold does not grow on the trees there.

Don Eaton, who is attending school at Cape Girardeau, is recovering from the mumps.

Miss Blanche Eaton will teach the Pine Grove school on Ottery.

Don Eaton will teach at Goodland proper, and Jim Webb at the lower Goodland school on Clayton.

Will Nelson of Bellevue came to Goodland Saturday after his sister, Miss Florence, who has been spending a month with her sister, Mrs. Cora Brooks.

Jim Mosier of Washington county visited his best girl at Goodland last Sunday.

Rev. Chester filled his appointment at Goodland Saturday and Sunday. Saturday night J. M. Shrum was ordained deacon.

And the cow goes where she pleases.

Obituary.

Died, at his home in Bellevue, April 9, 1906, William Edmonds, aged 68 years and 12 days. From the home has gone a loving husband and father; one whose every pulse-beat was in harmony with every good and noble action. As a man his hours were filled with kind words, his days with generous deeds. With a pleasant word and smile he greeted you; with a willing hand he helped you; and with a cheerful heart he aided those who needed help. He was a consecrated Christian and death was only an exchange of the cross for a crown.

Wife, sons, daughters and friends, weep not for the vacant chair which can never be filled, but give yourselves comfort for his soul is with his God. Console yourselves for his troubles are over.

'Tis enough for us to know that his soul has taken its flight and is with its maker, where he has joined his loved ones, and with them beyond the dark river of death, he beckons you come through the pearly gates, where he waits to greet you. He leaves a wife, four sons and three daughters to mourn his loss. May God comfort the bereaved.

Weep not for the saints that ascend To partake of the joys of the sky. Weep not for the seraph that blends With the worshipping chorus on high.

Weep not for the spirit crowned With the garland to martyrdom given. O, weep not for him, he has found His reward and his refuge in heaven.

A NIECE.

Hogan Items.

J. B. Holloman was in Ironton last week.

Miss C. Kistner and Mrs. Thos. Sutton spent Saturday in Ironton.

P. A. Myers spent Tuesday in Hogan.

Miss Belle Miller of Sabula was the guest of Mrs. Hughes last week.

A. E. Bisch and Miss Maude Reese took in the ball at Bismarck the 18th. A fine time was had by all.

Chas. Holloman and Ed. Conley are in Ironton this week.

Harvey Clark of St. Louis was in Hogan Saturday.

G. W. Buford has moved to Ironton.

Mrs. J. A. Reese and Mrs. Bisch were in St. Louis last Wednesday.

Ed. Benson of Annapolis was here for a few hours Saturday.

Flatwoods Items.

Allow us space in your paper and we will come forward and make our report.

The confounded roads are so "level" we would like to avoid traveling them.

Farming seems to be the order of the day.

The peach blossoms look very favorable for a good peach crop, provided Jack Frost doesn't pay them a visit.

Lovel Dettmer visited friends and relatives Saturday and Sunday.

Gilbert Signer made a flying trip to Flatwoods Sunday evening. Rev. J. H. Calvert failed to fill his regular appointment here last Sunday night. The community was disappointed.

There will be a singing here at the school house Sunday evening at 3 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Jim Freeland's horse was seen hitched at J. T. Blanton's home Sunday evening.

Louie Dettmer and Miss Mae Myracle were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dettmer Sunday evening.

Harvey Tucker left Monday for Bonnetter after spending a few weeks with home folk.

Misses Edna Tucker and Lula Myracle are expected home next Saturday.

Miss Sophia Blanton was the guest of Miss Frona Tucker Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Tucker.

Fred Pease made a flying trip to Flat River.

Miss Rita Dettmer entertained a host of youngsters at her home Sunday afternoon. They all report a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Pease have been on the sick list for the past week.

W. D. Tucker went to Bellevue Tuesday on business.

M. M. Myracle and wife were pleasant callers on John Pease and family Sunday afternoon.

Two Chums.

Obituary.

Died, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Rosa Reagan, at Rosewell, N. M., February 12, 1906, Andrew Huff, beloved son of Steven Huff.

He was born in Missouri December 27, 1857, where he lived till a short time before his death. He was married May 8, 1881, to Miss Susie R. King, to which union five children were born: Julian, Elmer, Tom, Blanche and Hampton, who survive him. He also leaves a father, three brothers and three sisters. He was taken sick in October, and on growing worse, he thought a change of climate would help him, as all medicines had failed. On December 20th he started for New Mexico, where he landed January 1st. There he was taken in charge by his sister and his son, Elmer, and was watched by loving eyes and given tender care; everything being done that could be, till February 12, when that great, loving Master bid him come up higher. Oh, how sad it was to see him take his last breath. But how consoling it is to know that he is only sleeping; awaiting that great resurrection morning, when he can once more meet his loving wife, mother and two sisters, who have preceded him but a few years. He was a member of the United Baptist Church, and died with a great hope in Jesus.

"So sweet to walk with Jesus, Step by step and day by day, Following closely where He leads us, Walking with Him all the way."

A Loving Sister.
